Lyrics

A child is a child — you knew that for Ukraine.

But Gaza? You scroll past the blood and pain.

You lit buildings blue and yellow with pride,

But for these kids, not even your eyes cried.

You speak of rights, of freedom, of law,

Then cheer the state that bombs without flaw.

You taught the world to “never forget,”

Yet here you are — complicit in debt.

You say “terror” when brown hands resist,

But never when tanks and drones persist.

You frame the oppressed as born to die,

And call it defense when warplanes fly.

Silence is never neutral — it's a side.

Every muted word, a truth denied.

If justice shifts by skin or name,

Then all your values burn in shame.

Don't preach of peace while drawing lines,

If some grief counts more by design.

A life is a life — no matter the land.

And truth, in time, will take its stand.

Silence means

Silence = YES to genocide! —Your choice 👊

Silence = YES to double standards — Your choice 👊
