"Freedom of Hatred" is a Danish value?

"Freedom of Hatred" is a Danish value? Or is it "double standards" that you value the most?

Imagine if ...

I have witnessed that, the person who spreads hatred against Islam, sometimes also comes with a Izraeli flag in hand and promotes Izraeli genocides! I forgot to take a photo back then, but I have seen him doing so in Nørreport, which is one of the main crowded areas in Copenhagen.

If this is not hat3 speech, I don't know what hat3 really means in your language. I guess "freedom of speech" means you are only allowed to spread hatred against Middle Easterners, Asians, Iranians, Russians, Arabs, Muslims, Chinese, their cultures, their beliefs, their looks, etc. Contradictory, if you expose the real face of raci$$m and hatr3d in these parts of the world, then they will find a way to eliminate you. (wait to see what story they will come up with to get rid of me, as they have already done in the past to people like me who dared to stand against neo-fa$$$cism)

A reminder ...

These actions are the true meaning of anti-semitism: this is why.

And this is exactly why a person who supports Ashk-e Nazi ZiØn1sts ✡️ also spreads hatred against Muslims. Because "Project Izrael" was founded based on hating Semites (habitats of the Middle East). That's why ZiØn1sts hate Palestinians, Arabs, Iranians, and all the Middle Easterners. That's why they are supported by far-right extremists like this.

I also wrote a bit about the true face of Denmark in another article, and you can see another photo of this guy, two weeks earlier, in another place in Copenhagen. If you are planning to move to Denmark, I highly recommend you to check that article out.
