Terror in a suit and tie, on YouTube:

(Intro – spoken, over ambient synths)

They said they were peacekeepers.

But they fund the bombs.

They said they fought terror.

But they are the terror.

(Verse 1 – beat kicks in)

They shout “democracy,” then burn it down,

Call you a threat if you don’t wear their crown.

From Gaza to Tehran, their lies repeat,

They kill our rights beneath their feet.

They called Iran the enemy of peace,

But begged for help when terror increased.

Syria cried, Iraq bled too —

Iran came strong — and pushed them through!

(Chorus – drop)

Terror in a suit and tie,

Flags wave while children die.

Zionists with stolen land,

Call it defense — with blood on hands.

(Chant – repeat)

You created the Daesh terrorist state,

You back the killers, then call us hate.

Hamas defends — you scream "terrorist,"

While bombs fall down through morning mist.

(Verse 2 – synth melody rises)

European migrants with guns, not fear.

Cross the sea, then claim the land,

Build a “home” with blood and sand.

Apartheid walls, checkpoints tight,

Shoot the truth and block the light.

And when we speak, you twist the name,

Your crimes are hidden in “anti-shame.”

(Bridge – dark rhythm)

They bomb the hospitals, then lie on air,

Say “it was fake” — like they don’t care.

They kill the kids, then blame the race,

Then call it law — then call it grace.

Iran stood firm while you looked away,

Fought the terror you let play.

You gave them weapons, gave them ground,

We stood alone — while you frowned.

(Chorus – drop again)

Terror in a suit and tie,

Speak of law while babies cry.

Gaza burns and silence reigns,

But still you talk of “equal pains.”

(Chant – repeat)

You hate the ones who never kneel,

Who won’t forget, who choose to feel.

They call it terror — we call it breath,

(Verse 3 – faster pace)

They fear a voice that speaks too true,

They fear the facts we bring to view.

You called us “evil” — we said why?

‘Cause we don't bow. We won't comply.

You label truth, then turn away,

As Lebanon and Syria pay.

But here we stand, and here we rise,

With fire, with truth — not with disguise.

(Final Chorus – anthem-style)

Terror doesn’t wear a mask,

It signs the deals, completes the task.

From Tel Aviv to Washington,

The terror walks — with badge and gun.

(Outro Chant – fading)

Suit and tie — but same old hate,

Fascist face in a Western state.

You say “freedom,” but that’s a lie...

Terror wears a suit and tie.
